

Exhausted, Zent and Chomper could sight of Athena entering a ~~bird~~ building fit for the Queen. Suddenly Zent Erted at how hard ~~it was~~ it was going to find Athena. Amazed, Chomper stared at the size of the supermarket, had only dream things this size. how would they find Athena its like searching for a needle in a hay stack?

Standing behind a black old car wheel (that must have been their for a long time) was Zent and Chomper (the gods looking for Athena that's a other god) discovered that in front of the entrance was a big, Strong and Scary god they must get past the god. The god had a laser on right hand side of his blue T-shirt (that made very them very friend) Seconds later Zent knowist the gods Sacke Skin bell. Was this what Zent and Chomper were looking for?

With one sneaky swipe the gods ball Legend and the gods crosses fell down as the two gods aproched the entrance and Zent almost fainted in amazement. First Zent saw Little humans around 3. three :les in particular. Zent Wasnt amazed at the Little humans. however Chomper Was dribbling in hunger because he'd spote the spongy ~~eylinder~~ cylinders (cake). As he shaped Chomper out of his food craze. As he looked around, he knowist the Kulte :le he steard at the weapons in horror. The blade that stended out was short, Dagger like and could be used as a blade of Fear. Would the humans use this against them - ~~mean while~~ . mean while Athena was searching for something to take her revenge on. At the corner of her eye she spotted the Emardo selection. Was this ~~what~~ what she was looking for? Moments later it came to her. she punched rocket like up onto the Emardos. Nerves and Anger. She bit down. No quitting. now on she begins...

As Zent adventured around he spotted Athenas foot prints. He ran as fast as he could run. He followed the foot prints. Chomper Wasent that much help. but as we followed the foot prints path. to their horror Athena was subprized in a humorous box, filled to the rim with Emardos. Suddenly.

Zewb knew that Athena was stuck and buried at the bottom. Zewb desperately searched for something to use as a strong wind on the dusty floor was an old discarded liquorice. Zewb ^{decided} ~~decided~~ to use the liquorice as a strong wind and he bent a paper clip into the shape of a hook as they recovered Athena. Athena was freezing cold and was shivering like a shaking whirling machine. She needs to warm up.

As the three gases Wizzed out of the store and into the sun shine Athena stopped shaking shivering. However they still had to get out of the car park. Cars zoomed and Wizzed like a missile. How were they going to get out of the car park. Suddenly a human (carrying a lot's of bags) was coming towards Zewb, Chomper and Athena. Then it came to Zewb. They all jumped into one of bags. As they approached one of the top corners. All of the gases jumped out. Athena was whimpering sadly and apologizing that she should never make Zewb and Chomper endanger their lives. Zewb thought that this was odd but Zewb agreed like a fish in new water. Athena whimpered sadly said this was the last time she will do something so stupid. Unimpressed Zewb did not think this was the last time she will do something so stupid.
